

Summer2024

HOSTING RESEARCH INTERNS AT TEXAS A&M GUIDELINES

November 15, 2023: Submit resume/CV, transcript and priority listing of faculty members

January 15, 2024: Match faculty mentors

February 1, 2024: Acceptance of internship offer

TENTATIVE ITINERARY

May 21st

- Arrive at George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH) by 2 p.m.
- Take shuttle from IAH to College Station apartment complex by 4 p.m.
- Check-in and receive welcome bag

May 22nd & May 23rd

- Orientation with Immigration Services, College of Engineering orientation, Aggie ID, grocery store and campus tour

May 23rd

- Faculty mentor meet and greet
- Start research projects

June 27th

- Mid-summer check-in with Halliburton Engineering Global Programs

July 26th

- Final reception with faculty mentor

July 27 & July 28th

- Departure

CULTURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Immerse yourself in Aggie, Texas, and US cultures!

- July 4th Independence Day Celebration
- Concerts at Wolf Pen Creek
- First Friday in downtown Bryan
- Additional opportunities for cultural and professional events will be shared later

ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITY

- 40 hours weekly research engagement
- Member of research team
- Mentored by top-notch engineering faculty
- Solve real-world engineering problems

CONTACT INFORMATION

- Leslie L. Donaway, Assistant Director
Halliburton Engineering Global Programs
E-mail: Ldonaway@tamu.edu